

David F. Klinge, MA, RPA

Chief Operations Officer/Regional Manager/Principal Investigator

7123 Pearl Road, Suite 107 • Middleburg Heights, OH 44130 • Phone: 440.845.7590 • dklinge@ascgroup.net

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

David oversees day-to-day company operations, manages the Ohio regional offices, and also serves as a principal investigator and project manager. He is responsible for coordinating the activities of all employees across the company and ensuring that each region has the capacity and capabilities to provide our clients with the best possible product. As a project manager and principal investigator, David is responsible for all phases of project development from proposal to execution to help client projects achieve environmental compliance.

Education

Dickinson College,
BA History
1996

The University of Maine,
MA Historical Archaeology
2001

Certifications

Principal Investigator,
Ohio (2005)

Principal Investigator,
West Virginia (2005)

Principal Investigator,
Indiana (2008)

Principal Investigator,
Kentucky (2011)

Principal Investigator,
Pennsylvania

EXPERTISE

- 20 years of experience in cultural resources management and NEPA compliance.
- Working with clients that range from small, private property owners to municipal, state, and federal agencies.
- Directing small to large cultural resources projects for airports, transportation improvements, inter- and intrastate pipelines, and Section 110 due diligence undertakings.
- Urban and historic sites archaeology in the Northeast and eastern Midwest.
- Military sites archaeology in the Great Lakes region.
- Developing project-specific work scopes to address compliance needs quickly and cost effectively.

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- US 31 Improvements Project, Hamilton County, Indiana. Served as Project Manager and Principal Investigator for Phase II Archaeological Testing and Phase III Mitigation.
- Woodward Avenue Light Rail Transit Project, City of Detroit, Wayne County, Michigan. Served as Project Manager and Principal Investigator for the Phase I Archaeological Survey.
- ACR and UMTF Project in Ohio, WV, PA, and KY. Served as Project Manager for Phase I archaeological surveys and Phase II archaeological assessments.