

Nichole Lashley

Senior Environmental Specialist

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Ms. Lashley is the Senior Environmental Specialist for the ASC Group Indianapolis office. She is also an Ecologist with over 20 years of experience conducting ecological investigations, waterway permitting, and NEPA document preparation.

EXPERTISE

- Phase I Environmental Site Assessment (ESA) ASTM 1527-13
- Phase II ESA ASTM 1903-11
- Brownfield Redevelopment, Risk Assessments, Engineering and Institutional Controls
- Corrective Action Plan and Cessation of Regulated Operations
- Petroleum Sites and UST/AST Removal and Installation
- NEPA Documentation: Environmental Assessments; Environmental Impact Statement; Finding of No Significant Impact
- ASTM E2356-14 Standard Practice for Comprehensive Building Asbestos Baseline Surveys, Project Design Surveys, and Pre-Construction Surveys
- National Emissions Standard for Hazardous Air Pollutants (NESHAP) Surveys
- EPCRA Documentation and Reporting: Hazardous Chemical Storage Reporting (EPA-Tier 2 Submit); Local Emergency Planning Committee–Emergency Response Plans; Toxic Release Inventory Reporting (TRI)
- Ecological Surveys: Macro-invertebrate Identification; Aquatic Species Identification; Terrestrial Species Identification; Invasive Species Monitoring and Identification; Endangered and Threatened Species
- Watershed Evaluations: Waters Delineations; 401/404 Permitting; Section 10 Permitting; NPDES–SWPPP; Water Quality Evaluations; Hydrodynamic Water Quality Model; Rosgen Methods; Limnology Principals

Education

Juniata College,
Huntingdon, Pennsylvania,
BS Political/Environmental Science

Certifications

State of Ohio
Environmental Protection
Agency Asbestos
Program: Asbestos
Hazard Evaluation
Specialist (ES34071)

29CFR 1910.120(e)(8)
Hazardous Waste
Certification
(Refresher 2018)

38-Hour Army Corps of Engineers Wetland
Delineation Training
Program (Certificate
#5457)

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE:

- HAM-IR71-9.92/10.75, Hamilton County Ohio. Phase I Environmental Site Assessment.
- 4350 Dixie Highway, Erlanger, Kentucky. Phase I Environmental Site Assessment of 2.48 acres.
- 3415 Seajay Drive, Dayton, Ohio. Phase I Environmental Site Assessment of 5.79 acres.
- US Army Garrison Fort Knox, Kentucky (W9124D-11-D-0033/Environmental Services). Hearings and Public Meetings, Site Visits and Summaries, and Ecological Surveys.
- Ohio Department of Transportation–3C Quickstart Rail Project. Environmental Assessment that included: Public involvement program; Agency Coordination; Purpose and need statement; Identification and analysis of passenger rail corridors; Identification and analysis of station locations; Environmental Studies; Preliminary Engineering; Cost Estimates; Development and analysis of feasible alternatives; Preparation of a Tier 1 Environmental Assessment; Selection of preferred alternative; Preparation of a Finding of No Significant Impacts