

Nora Hillard

Archaeological Technician

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Ms. Hillard is an archaeological technician for ASC Group and has gained extensive experience in archaeological field and lab methods for projects in Indiana and Michigan. She has worked closely in a team structure with crew members, project managers, and other personnel. She represented Ball State University and Applied Anthropology Laboratories professionally at public outreach Archaeology Day programs.

EXPERTISE

- Phase Ia field survey.
- Background research.
- Laboratory analysis; artifact identification, cleaning, preparation, and cataloging.
- Survey mapping, photography, data entry.
- Trimble GPS, GPR, soil augering.

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Mississinewa Reservoir Tree Removal Project, Miami, Wabash, and Grant Counties, Indiana. Phase Ia Archaeological Field Reconnaissance Survey.
- Hoosier National Forest: Attempting to Locate King Billy's Village Near the Lost River, Orange County, Indiana. Phase Ia Archaeological Field Reconnaissance Survey.
- River's Edge Park, Connersville, Fayette County, Indiana. Phase Ia Archaeological Field Reconnaissance Survey.
- Proposed Recreational Trail and Tennis Courts in Community Park, Fort Recovery, Recovery Township, Mercer County, Ohio. Archaeological Field Reconnaissance Survey.

Education

Ball State University,
Muncie, Indiana, BA
Anthropology