

Josh Netherton

Ecologist

Education

Ball State University,
Muncie, Indiana, BA
Natural Resources and Environmental Management

PROFESSIONAL RESPONSIBILITIES

Mr. Netherton is an ecologist in the Indianapolis office of ASC Group. His primary duties are performing ecological fieldwork, NEPA documentation, Red Flag Investigations, Early Coordination Letters, report preparation, and assisting with plant identification.

EXPERTISE

- Wetland Delineation.
- Plant Identification.
- Invasive Species Management.
- GIS Data Collection.

SELECTED PROJECT EXPERIENCE

- Kitselman Trail Phase 3, Delaware County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.
- US 36 & SR 9 over Fall Creek, Madison County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.
- SR 1 Bridge Rehabilitation over Ely Run, Allen County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.
- Coldwater Road HMA over I-69, Allen County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.
- I-469 Westbound Ramp to US 27 Pipe Lining, Allen County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.
- Amstutz Road Improvement over Nettlehorst Ditch, Allen County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.
- SR 352 over Gillen Ditch Culvert Replacement, Benton County, Indiana. Waters of the U.S. Determination/Wetland Delineation.